

MAGAREY LECTURES

The Leadership Challenge:

Drawing on the heritage of our movement to lead Churches of Christ today

@ Aldgate Church of Christ (The Village Well), 54 Strathalbyn Rd, Aldgate

Tuesday July 30th - 7:30pm

$10 per person

Speaker: Dr Tania Watson

Theme: 'What does the Gospel sound like for Australian people?'

Expressing the Gospel as good news for Australian people in a bad news media environment.

Wednesday July 31st - 7:30pm

$10 per person

Speaker: Dr Carson Reed

Theme: 'From Maintenance to Mission:

Re-imagining Leadership for God's Preferred Future.'

With many churches in decline, the work of pastoral leadership is often uncertain and ambiguous. Drawing from trinitarian theology and complexity theory, this presentation will offer hopeful practices for church leaders.

Dr. Carson E. Reed is Vice President for Church Relations at Abilene Christian University in Texas and Executive Director of the Siburt Institute for Church Ministry. He also serves as the Director for the Doctor of Ministry Program and holds the Frazer Endowed Chair for Church Enrichment as an Associate Professor of Practical Theology in the Graduate School of Theology. Through the Siburt Institute, Carson does consulting work on governance, transitions, and new ecclesial forms with congregations and church leaders. His teaching and research centres on practical theology with a particular focus on leadership, preaching, and issues surrounding faith and culture.

Dr. Tania Watson is the Executive Minister of Churches of Christ in Western Australia, a role that she's been privileged to steward since late 2009. Tania recently completed a doctoral project motivated by a desire to see the Christian community flourish through Godly leadership that understands the times in which we live. Tania is married to Neil and they enjoy walking and canoeing along their local stretch of the Canning River with their little black dog.
